

Application for Pastry & Baking Arts Specialization

Pierpont Community & Technical College
School of Human Services
Food Service Management Programs

The Associate of Applied Science in Food Service Management – Pastry & Baking Arts Specialization is a two-year, selective enrollment program. Upon completion of the required curriculum, graduates are eligible to take the American Culinary Federation Practical Exam to become Certified Pastry Cooks.

The application deadline is April 1 for priority consideration for the class beginning the following August. Submit completed application to Pierpont Community & Technical College, Attn: Chef Brian Floyd, 1201 Locust Avenue, Fairmont, WV 26554.

Name _____
Last First Middle

Phone (home) _____ SS# _____

Other Names your records may exist under _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Date of High School Graduation _____ or GED _____

College coursework? _____ If yes, degree earned? _____

ProStart student? _____ Do you anticipate to be ProStart certified? _____

- Completion of ProStart 1A, 1B, 2A, 2B
- 400 hrs internship/work experience
- Successful completion of ProStart exam

The minimum grade point average for admission is 2.0. Your cumulative GPA is _____.

You will also need to submit:

- General Admission Application for Pierpont Community & Technical College
- Partial or final high school transcript or GED
- Official ACT/SAT or Compass scores
- College transcript(s) if applicable

Do you have prior food service experience? Yes _____ No _____

(Please use the back of this sheet to explain work history or other pertinent information.)

I am requesting to be admitted to the Pastry & Baking Arts Program for the fall of _____.

Signature _____ Date _____