2. Are you planning to return to FSU/PC&TC in the fall?

If not, why not? (please specify)

1	Money is a big factor.	May 8, 2008 12:24 AM
2	The administrators and most of the professors I encountered were not helpful or seemed to care about their students.	May 8, 2008 2:13 AM

3. Is there a family or financial situation that is inhibiting you from returning to

Please explain:

- | | | |
|---|---|----------------------|
| 1 | It's hard to find a sitter on emergency situations for my 1 1/2 yr old daughter, and also, I only have two education grants offered to me so far, if I don't get more financial aid, there's no way I'll be able to keep attending. I live in Joetown and it takes me almost an hour travel one way, not to mention the high gas prices and my books. I am a single parent starting everything over again at the age of 47 and it's damn hard, but as long as I have help, I'll keep doing my very best to continue. I love FSU! I've even recruited some new students on my own! | May 7, 2008 10:33 PM |
| 2 | Money is hard to come up with. If I don't make enough money working this summer I won't be able to return. | May 8, 2008 10:14 AM |
| 3 | money problems | May 8, 2008 1:23 PM |
| 4 | i cant get any financial aid because my parents make barely above the bar for financial aid and i didnt get a girl pregnant in high school to get a free ride. this place is messed up. | May 8, 2008 5:30 PM |
| 5 | If I don't keep promise scholarship, I can't come back, and I worked my ass off to get my grades up, so I guess we'll just have to wait and see what happens. | May 13, 2008 3:11 PM |

8. Do you believe that you were properly advised by your major advisor?

If not, why not?

- | | | |
|----|---|-----------------------|
| 1 | My advisor was an education advisor. | May 7, 2008 2:32 PM |
| 2 | They were not properly informed of the accelerated programs on campus. Ex. five year teachers program; which I am interested in. I had to find out from another source. | May 7, 2008 5:07 PM |
| 3 | did not speak with anyone about the change. | May 7, 2008 8:01 PM |
| 4 | well the first semester i couldnt find him because he is never on campus or in his office. second semester my advisor was changed without informing me and i do not get along with her. | May 8, 2008 5:30 PM |
| 5 | I was undecided and nobody would really help me. | May 14, 2008 4:12 PM |
| 6 | I made the decision to change my major myself, they had absolutely nothing to do with it. | May 14, 2008 4:59 PM |
| 7 | The nursing office never answers the phone and when messages are left for my advisor, they are never returned. | May 14, 2008 7:40 PM |
| 8 | He didn't really get involved too much. | May 14, 2008 8:24 PM |
| 9 | They don't help enough. They are hard to get in contact with. If you have a question they don't really help you. | May 15, 2008 12:11 AM |
| 10 | I have never met my major advisor because she has been on leave since I started school. | May 15, 2008 1:04 AM |

1	I don't have any problems with Fairmont in general, but I believe that smoking is a huge problem around campus. I think that it is something that needs dealt with, either by smoke areas, no smoking, or other options. I know as an individual who doesn't smoke, it bothers me to walk outside and BEFORE I get out the door of a building, I already smell like smoke. I think it is a HUGE problem and something needs done. So if this doesn't pertain to you, you could pass it along. Thanks!	May 7, 2008 2:15 PM

5	Make sure teachers actually teach in their classes and offer classes that will definitely help the student when he or she goes into the related field for work. In my Apparel Design courses, I only have one teacher who actually teaches, whereas the others do not make much of an effort. More career-specific classes need to be added to the courses, but the dean doesn't believe there is much interest. I do not feel that I would be ready for a career in this field even by the time I graduate because hardly anything important or useful is taught. Realizing this as a freshman was important because I don't want to waste my time in a major that will not really prepare me for a job in the field.	May 7, 2008 4:49 PM

15	It seems as though several student have had a very difficult time registering for classes for the 2008 fall semester. Some advisors aren't getting back with their students and it makes the registering process very frustrating. I think that everyone should be given the alternate PIN so that we can register for our classes without having to go directly through our advisor. However if we need any assistance in what classes to take and such, an advisor should be assigned for that reason.	May 8, 2008 2:23 PM
